

2nd Sundays Call for Proposals

Dancers' Group and CounterPULSE have teamed up to present 2nd Sundays, a series of free salons where artists share work and dialogue with audience members and fellow artists. We see this as an exciting opportunity to advance discussion of the craft and hope you'll join us for the conversation.

The Program:

2nd Sundays takes place at CounterPULSE on the second Sunday of the month at 2pm. Each year there are two seasons of 2nd Sundays:

Spring Series: February - May

Fall Series: September - December

Two to four artists each present up to 10 minutes of work followed by a facilitated in-depth conversation between the artists and the audience about the work. This program is an ideal opportunity for artists to gain useful feedback about works-in-progress, or to re-visit and delve deeper into completed work.

The Details:

- 2nd Sundays is presented in a bare studio setting with neutral lighting—the focus is on the work, not on theatrical presentation. Each artist will be given a short period of time in the space to run material, but there is no formal tech.
- All artists selected for the Spring 2010 series are responsible for attending a one-hour orientation meeting on October 29, 2009 at 5:15pm.
- Artists are responsible for attending two of the other three programs during the series (we encourage you to participate in all of the seasons events if possible).
- Artists assist in spreading the word about the event – we have found that word of mouth from the artists generates an invested and informed audience.
- An honorarium of $100 is available to each group.

How to Apply:

We encourage artists working in all movement forms to apply, and those who have participated in previous 2nd Sundays can apply with new or reworked pieces.

Proposals can be submitted for the upcoming round by visiting:
